Sponsor Families

A huge thank you goes out to the families who have graciously offered to serve the community as an Osan Good Neighbor English Camp host family. The Camp kicks off in mid-May.

More Host Families are needed!

As reported by the 51st Fighter Wing, the Wing Staff Judge Advocate Office hosted approximately 30 students from OMS to take part in a mock trial. This year's Law Day theme was "No Courts, No Justice, No Freedom."

Above, Tanner Harrold, a sixth grader at Osan Middle School, acts as the presiding judge of a mock trial hosted by the 51st Fighter Wing Judge Advocate Office for Law Day at Osan Air Base, Republic of Korea, May 1, 2012. A huge thank you goes out to the Wing Staff Judge Advocate Office for providing this powerful learning opportunity for our students and to Ms. Kimble for taking advantage of it!

B'Ball at OMS

Osan Middle School continued to foster high expectations of its students academically and athletically by hosting a basketball jamboree on Saturday, April 28. OMS showed its Thunderbird pride and competitive attitude by winning 6 out of 6 of their regulation games and ending the day in a tie in the final All Star Game against ICSU. The highlights of the basketball jamboree came when eight players of the OMS Girls team took the court. They dazzled with foot work, passing and a downright unbelievable defense. The girls reminded us of the old Utah Jazz with passes like John Stockton and power moves like Karl Malone. They were fully engaged and motivated to achieve success with high expectations from the crowd !

T'Bird Pride Far and Wide!
